

about her meeting with the mysterious woman of the night before she left New York last September.

She says she has seen the man who met her at the night before she left New York last September.

Mrs. Hermann was evidently in an unstable condition, for she broke away from the police officers in the street.

Just then she caught a glimpse of ex-Senator Daly's face in the doorway.

She started her head on another side, but she saw the man who had been with her in the table in front of the witness.

DID NOT REGISTER.

Many Well-known Citizens Have Lost Their Right to Vote.

Some of Them Have Been Loud in Denunciation of Tammany.

Others Who Seldom Voted Have Been Enrolled This Year.

The list of registered voters which has been published by the Board of City Record emphasizes in a remarkable manner the interest which everybody seems to take in the struggle of Tuesday next.

It makes no difference to me whether this woman was before the Lexow Committee or not. She is entitled to the police protection due every one, and I propose seeing that she gets it while in my precinct.

Mrs. Uchitell now lives in the basement of 17 Orchard street, where a reporter called to-day.

There are a few, however, who apparently through their own carelessness, have lost their right to vote in the coming election. Some of them have preached "reform" and in season and out of season have assailed Tammany.

Still they have not registered. For instance, there is nothing whatever to show that Archbishop Corrigan registered from his home, 43 Madison avenue, although five of the priests connected with the Cathedral parish did so.

Bishop Potter did not register from 29 Lafayette place, which was his residence. His Secretary, Rev. Mr. Nelson, registered instead.

Rev. Father Thomas Ducey did not register from 18 West Twenty-ninth street, where the city directory says he lives.

The 26 girls and 120 men who have been employed for the last five weeks in the printing-house of Martin B. Brown, in Park place, getting on the return of the city directory, are not on the block between the numbers 14 and 30.

Rev. Father Ducey has been in the reform movement for many years. He has attended the hearings of the Lexow Committee, and he has been a member of the Board of City Record.

John De Witt Warner, the present incumbent of the New York State Democracy, and who was turned down by Tammany, is a Cleveland native, and he is a Cleveland native.

20 DISTRICTS FOR STRONG.

Charles Stecker Makes Another Forecast of the Political Situation.

The gloomy view of the political situation taken by County Clerk Purroy, the enthusiasm of the anti-Tammanyites and the forecast of the election made by Charles Stecker, of the County Organization, published in yesterday's "The Evening World," has caused no end of discussion among the leaders of Tammany Hall.

While none of them will admit that, as claimed by Mr. Stecker, Tammany will be beaten by 20,000, still they all admit that the city is in a state of almost certain defeat.

Many of the districts which two weeks ago they declared would carry them, they now declare will carry the city by a large majority.

Mr. Stecker is out to-day with an answer to the forecast of the city by the Tammanyites. He has taken the city by five more in doubt. Here are the districts which he claims to carry.
